

OBITUARY.

Mrs Emma Hutcherson

Mrs Emma Hutcherson, who formerly was a resident of Marshall, died at her home in Louisville, Ky. Saturday, April 15, after a lingering illness. She submitted to a surgical operation sometime in February and for a time seemed on the way to recovery but complications arose and she passed peacefully from this life into the rest promised by the Master, when he said, "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." Deceased was born in Henry county, Kentucky, about 57 years ago. She lived in Marshall a number of years moving back to Louisville some ten years ago. She was a sister of Hon. J. P. Strother, of Fresno, California, and Henry Strother, of Van Buren, Arkansas, and a sister of Mrs. T. E. Spencer, of this city. She leaves two sons, Henry and William Hutcherson, and one daughter, Miss Belle, all of Louisville, and a wide circle of relatives and friends, to whom the news of her death comes as a great shock.

Mrs. Hutcherson was a devout member of the Methodist church and a faithful worker in the service of the Master. Hers was a beautiful character, possessing those noble qualities by which she endeared herself to all around her. The burial took place on Sunday. She rests from her labors and her works do follow her. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved family in this hour of sorrow.

J.O. Patterson Jr.

Little J. C. Patterson, Jr., infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Patterson died Tuesday morning, April 18, after an illness of a week with enlargement of the liver. Only two weeks old since this little stranger came to gladden the otherwise complete home and endear himself to all who were near him. We shall miss him but God knows best and we surrender to his will.

May God, who comforteth the cast down, bring consolation and peace to his bereaved parents and relatives. The funeral took place at the residence, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Donehoe, officiating. Burial at Ridge Park.

Mrs. Lottie Brice.

Mrs Lottie Brice, aged 65 years, died at her home on Salt Pond Ave. at 12:45 a. m. Tuesday, after a lingering illness. She was a consistent member of the Baptist church. After a life full of labor and efficient service she has entered into rest. Deceased leaves seven children to mourn for a most devoted mother. They are: W.O. and J. S., of Orange, Texas, Ralph, of Montana, Mrs. L. M. Riess, of Duluth, Minnesota, Mrs. Jennie Prior, and Misses Annie and Laura Brice, of Marshall.

Funeral conducted by Rev. J. F. Kemper, took place Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, burial at Ridge Park.

Died.

Died on Monday night, at her home near Hardeman, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Gibson, of spinal meningitis, aged 18 months. Burial took place at the cemetery near Hardeman. She was a lovely child, the pet of the home. We can not bring her back but we can go to her. She is not dead but sleepeth.

James Yates.

James Yates, aged 32 years, died at his home on College Hill, Monday.

WRIGHTS'

day night. He was a christian man very much respected by all who knew him. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

Three children are left fatherless. The funeral was conducted by the young ministers at the College. Burial took place at Shiloh, Wednesday.

A newspaper whose columns overflow with advertisements of business men, says Talmage, the great preacher, has more influence in attracting attention to and building up a town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business. Capital and labor where there is an enterprising community. No power on earth is so strong to build up a town as a newspaper well patronized, and its power should be recognized.
